

Welcome to the MYAA Weekly Review. In this blog, we will cover what is going on in the MYAA. There are many things in the planning stages for 2009 & 2010.

The MYAA Football Champ Camps are now being announced and registration is starting to take place. We plan on having numerous camps to eliminate travel time. Please check for updates to see when a camp is available in your area. If not, please email us to suggest a camp in your area. Livonia has two sessions locked in and North Oakland will be announced shortly.

Stay tuned for details on more upcoming events as they will be posted on the site soon.
